3 There are already four Probationers in the Income-tax Dept and six in the Rev. Dept. The question of giving a change to Mr J.V. Dasappa, another Probationer, from the Co-operative Dept to the Rev. Dept is separately under consideration in the Rev. Branch.

4 In the above circumstances the request of Mr Vijayadevaraj Urs to give him a change to the Rev or Income-tax Dept is for orders.

5 The representations from Probationers recruited to Depts other than Revenue, have of late become common, that any favourable Consideration may result in dislocation of work or training in the respective Depts to which they are recruited, apart from encouraging others to take their chances by trying to post apply for similar transfers or change over. It is therefore perhaps necessary & desirable that such representations are discouraged by refusing to consider any such representation except on very special grounds & when recommended by Heads of Depts assigning adequate reasons. 7390/23/4

Sir,

I sat for the M.C.S.Examination in January 1946 and was subsequently appointed as an Assistant Superintendent of Police along with other Probationers. Now I am under training in the same department.

In this connection, I wish to state that the Police Department does not suit my temperament. I sat for the M.C.S.Examination with the idea of getting into the Revenue Department. But unfortunately I am placed in the Police Department for which I have no special aptitude.

Hence I humbly request that I may kindly be changed to the Revenue Department or to the Income-Tax Department which suits my inclination. I hope my humble prayer will be granted.

For which act of kindness I shall remain ever grateful to you,

I beg to remain,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Bangalore,
